IN A FLAG FOR SUNRISE, his finest work to date, he invents a claustrophobic, insane CIA crazed country, TECAN. A Graham Greene novel written by a close to the edge survivor, this is a complex, political, religious thriller. There are some chilling moments early on, a whiskey priest (not a very rare breed, in fiction) a radical nun, a reptilian colonel, a CIA agent, his latin american contact, a drug

A Flag for Sunrise brings us back to the 1970s and 1980s, where America is fighting a war against communism along it's southern periphery, the backyard of Central America. It is a period often forgotten or glossed over by modern Americans who think of this period as that time when Reagan won his war against Communism. Stone brings us back and cuts out a small story within a bigger story- of a
