Although Judy's cameras love the corporate confrontation, this segment seems tacked on to the plot. However, Kendra is an admirable character who discovers inner strength while thrust in a sink-or-swim environment. Fans of Meg Cabot's Princess Diaries series may migrate to this romantic comedy.

The Black Sheep by Yvonne Collins Goodreads

I just really adored The Black Sheep. I loved the reality TV angle, and the messages on environmentalism. It is one of those "the grass isn't always greener" and all that jazz stories, since Kendra comes to realize that all families have their problems, and it's just a matter of communicating.

The ending was quite cheesy and unbelievable, but it made me happy, so I don't care! I just had a blast reading this one and it left me with a big, goofy grin.
